

THE LAST OF THE FOUR

CONCLUDING LECTURE ON
"CHRISTIAN FUNDAMENTALS"
GIVEN MONDAY EVENING

The fourth lecture in the series prepared by the Glendale Ministerial Association was given Monday evening in the High School Auditorium. After two fine solos by Luther Solt, choir leader of the Christian Church, Rev. Mottern introduced the speaker, Dr. W. S. Dysinger, pastor of the First Lutheran Church of Los Angeles. Rev. Mottern prefaced the introduction with a brief history of the causes leading to the Reformation.

Dr. Dysinger said in part: "The cry all down the ages since Christ's time is, 'What shall I do to be saved?' And the why of this is given in Holy Writ, in such passages as these: 'There is none good, no, not one.' 'We have all sinned and come short of the glory of God; 'If we say we are without sin, we deceive ourselves.' The wages of sin is death and realizing this how can man appear before God for there is no merit in him. It is only by the surpassing mercy of the Christ that any can be saved."

"If my religion is true, all others are false. If others are true then mine is false. There is no middle ground, and there is no place on this earth for a parliament of religions. The religion of Jesus Christ is true, therefore all others, Buddhism, Confucianism, Mormonism and Mohammedism are false and misleading. "Justification is an act of God's mercy through the intercession of Christ for we are utterly unworthy. If I violate the law, am found guilty (Continued on Page 4)

THE WORKER AND THE JOB

Word comes from the City Hall that applications are on file there from employers who want machinists, men who can drive trucks, cement workers, carpenters. Men in these lines who want jobs are requested to register. Also employers are asked to keep this free employment bureau in mind and apply for men as the applicants are coming and going constantly and it is desirable to be able to bring the job and the worker together without delay. The young women in charge of the department also report applications for women to clean, do washing and other domestic work. Women who want work of that kind are requested to come to the office of the City Clerk in the City Hall and register.

THE BIRD MAN

Charles Bowman Hutchins, the bird interpreter, contributed greatly to the evening service at the First Methodist Church Sunday evening. He is a great lover and student of birds and practices twelve different forms of whistling. His work was beautifully religious and made a very appropriate introduction to the brief talk made by the pastor who followed him and whose theme was suggested by one of the art windows of the church, the descent of the spirit in the form of a dove, which Mr. Scott considers a fitting symbol of the spirit of God, the guide, messenger and comforter.

ENJOYED TOBOGGANING

MR. AND MRS. H. P. GOODWIN AND PARTY PLAY IN THE
SNOW ON BALDY

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Goodwin of Garfield avenue and a party which included Miss McDonald, of Pasadena, who was their week-end guest, Mr. MacCorquodale, of Hollywood, and his mother, Mrs. Dixon, motored to Camp Baldy Sunday and enjoyed a frolic in the snow. They found none at the camp proper but went on for a mile and a half over a new road recently completed which brought them within quarter of a mile of the canyon in which they found snow slides four feet deep deposited in crevices and gullies with which they snow-balled each other and also found a toboggan slide in fine condition with which they also had great sport. The air was warm and delightful even in the canyon where the snow was found, but it seemed certain from the rate at which it was melting that it would very soon be gone. The man at the toll gate through which they passed told them that the Sunday before 550 persons had come through. The Goodwins estimated from the visitors they saw that there must have been as many more the day they were there. They found the roads in excellent condition all the way and perfectly dry, even in the canyon where snow was found, which was on the north slope of the mountain.

LESSONS OF THE WAR

JOSEPH SCOTT THRILLS BIG AUDIENCE WITH DESCRIPTIONS OF SIGHTS OVER THERE

A big audience gathered at the Palace Grand Monday night, to enjoy the lecture by Joseph Scott of Los Angeles and the other entertainment provided for the benefit arranged to raise money for the building of the new Catholic Church. As remarked by H. M. Doll who called the meeting to order, it was "a tribute to Father O'Neill and to the cause."

Preliminary to the lecture was a miscellaneous program which included as screen offerings the always interesting Pathe News specials, and the exceedingly amusing comedy, "Romance and Rings," which featured Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew. Medleys of good, old-fashioned airs and of patriotic melodies were played by the orchestra which dropped into the Irish familiars such as "Kathleen Mavourneen," and "Wearing of the Green," about the time Mr. Scott arrived and with attending delegation of Knights of Columbus made his way to the platform. There were also vocal numbers by Norman Otis, who has a wonderful bass voice, and Elline Grist who sang "There's a Rose That Grows in No-Man's Land."

Seated upon the platform were Father O'Neill, Joseph Scott, Thomas White, H. M. Doll, A. R. Townsend, Joseph Foltz, H. V. Henry, J. G. Monahan, J. W. Andre, Father Maher and Father Stack of the Jesuit College, Los Angeles.

Preliminary to the program, which was in charge of J. H. Mellish, H. M. Doll, as before stated, called the meeting to order and introduced "Tom" White, who, in turn, introduced the speaker with a glowing tribute to his wonderful qualities as a man, an attorney, citizen and patriot, pointing out the sacrifices he (Continued on Page 2)

WILL YOU BE THERE?

THE QUESTION ASKED OF ALL SERVICE BOYS REGARDING
TONIGHT'S MEETING

In these days of uncertainty and unrest every man who wore his country's uniform as soldier, sailor, aviator or in any other branch of the service, should place himself squarely on record as standing by Uncle Sam. They can do this best through their loyal organizations. Such an organization is to be formed tonight in Glendale, if enough of the boys are at the Elks' social hall to perfect it. Such men as Captain Dru Nicoles, Captain A. F. Weisenheimer, Prof. Richardson D. White, J. F. McBryde and Dr. Flint are back of the movement, together with many others, and a local organization with a large membership should be formed, ready to affiliate with a national or international body. Get the word out to all the service boys of the lower San Fernando Valley territory to be present.

AUTO ACCIDENTS

Two auto accidents which occurred Sunday appear on the records of the police department at the City Hall. One occurred on South Brand, near Cerritos Avenue, in the afternoon, when a P. E. car struck a Maxwell machine owned by Mrs. J. R. Collins. The auto was considerably demolished, but there is no record that any one was hurt. The other accident, which occurred Sunday morning about 9 o'clock, was also on Brand. J. Findlayson, driving a Ford car, collided with a Cadillac driven by Wilbur J. Hogeboom. The Ford car was overturned and Mr. Findlayson's mother, who was a passenger, was injured in the leg. She was removed to Thornycroft Hospital. The Cadillac was not injured, nor its occupants.

IMPORTANT MEETING

MOMENTOUS $200,000 BOND ISSUE QUESTION TO BE DISCUSSED

Every citizen and taxpayer of Glendale should be present at the meeting of the Greater Glendale Development Association this Tuesday evening at the Intermediate School, corner of Kenwood street and Wilson avenue at 7:30 o'clock to hear the report from the Memorial Park Committee. The Committee will advise that a bond election for $200,000 be called at once. This report will be acted upon by the Greater Glendale Development Association. Everybody is asked to be present and participate in the meeting.

NORTON C. WELLS,
President.
C. D. LUSBY,
Secretary.

MEN OF 363RD INFANTRY

THE TRANSPORT KENTUCKIAN REACHES NEW YORK WITH 1,500 CALIFORNIANS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

New York, April 1.—The transport Kentuckian arrived today with 1,904 officers and men, of which 1,500 were from California, largely San Franciscans. Mayor Rolph of San Francisco and a large California delegation greeted them.

The men included the 182 Brigade Headquarters and the Regimental and First Battalion Headquarters, Machine Gun Company, Medical Detachment, and Companies A to D, inclusive, of the 363rd Infantry.

LOWER CALIFORNIA BUGABOO

MEXICAN AMBASSADOR SAYS NOTHING IN IT, AND U. S. OFFICIALS ARE NOT CONCERNED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, April 1.—Mexican Ambassador Bonillas, in an interview today, said that jingo attempts to create ill feeling between the United States and Mexico over the "Japanese bugaboo" are groundless and malicious.

He said he saw no menace to the Monroe Doctrine or defiance of the United States in the Mexican proposals to colonize vacant land in Lower California.

Officials believe that the proposed sale of Lower California land to Japanese interests appears to be merely a private transaction without international significance. They indicated that unless it is shown clearly that it involves a definite plan of aggression by some foreign government, the United States may not interfere. Advances here indicate that neither the Mexican nor the Japanese governments are involved.

CONTROL OF PACKERS ENDS

RELEASED FROM FEDERAL CONTROL AND FROM FOOD ADMINISTRATION LICENSING SYSTEM

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, April 1.—A presidential proclamation, effective today, was made public releasing all packers from federal control and also from the food administration's licensing system. The President signed the proclamation in Paris.

This action removes all restrictions on profit margins. Food administration officials said they did not believe that the proclamation would affect food prices seriously.

In Paris the President announced the appointment of Julius Barnes as head of the organization for handling the 1919 wheat crop under congressional guarantees. He announced that Herbert Hoover would continue as chairman of the sugar board until all contracts are completed and also as head of the grain corporation until July 1, after which time the grain corporation will be responsible directly to President Wilson.

MANY AMENDMENTS TO LEAGUE COVENANT

SOME BELIEVE MANY DEBATED POSITIONS WILL BE ABANDONED, BUT NONE WILL DISCUSS THE POINTS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Paris, April 1.—The League of Nations covenant will be considered again Thursday when the League of Nations Commission meets. Amendments covering the Monroe doctrine, Japanese racial equality claims, and the French proposal for the organization of an international general staff, may be brought up Thursday, but no one would discuss these points definitely. Some believe that all of these proposals will be abandoned.

The new draft of the league constitution contains twenty-six articles, as did the first draft, but the wording has been changed. The Socialist and Labor Congress at Berne has submitted new amendments calling for representatives of minority and majority parties in the various parliaments of the league's legislative body, the representation of nationalities within nations and universal free trade in raw materials.

HUNGARY NOT AT WAR WITH SERBIA

FOREIGN MINISTER PROMISES THAT ALL LAND IN HUNGARY WILL BE NATIONALIZED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

London, April 1.—A wireless dispatch from Buda Pesth says that the Hungarian foreign minister, Bela Kun, characterizes the report that Hungary has declared war on Serbia and Roumania as a "lie." He added that within three days all land in Hungary will be nationalized and all debts cancelled.

GENERAL STRIKE ON IN ESSEN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Copenhagen, April 1.—A general strike is scheduled in Essen today. The workers demand a six-hour day, 25 per cent increase in wages and recognition of the soviet government.

OLD CLOCK TICKS AGAIN

SAILOR BOY, BACK AT WORK, STARTS PENDULUM TO SWINGING AGAIN

On April, 5, 1918, J. Clarence Klammer, who was doing a profitable business in jewelry, watches, clocks and repairing at 500 East Broadway, heeded his country's call and donned the sailor blue, going first to San Pedro, where, after a training of three and a half months, he was transferred to Mare Island. When he had completed his training he went on board the U. S. Beaver, submarine tender, where he served to the close of the war. Then he came back home and, after a few weeks' rest, donned the business harness again, as will be seen by his ad. Just as old Israel Putnam left plow in furrow, with the oxen attached, and went to join General Washington before Boston, so this young man of a later day dropped his business and his tools to enter his country's service. And the old clock that had marked time so accurately and regulated so many watches for passersby, ticked steadily on for two or three days and then stopped. Now all is changed back as it was of yore, and the pendulum swings back and forth again.

PARK COMMITTEE MEETING

About forty-five members of the Soldiers' Memorial and Park Committee met in the library room of the Intermediate School Monday evening and listened to a report from W. B. Kirk on cost of grounds and Clarence Jay on approximate cost of improvements and equipment.

Mr. Kirk reported that the Sanitarium grounds could be purchased for about $55,000, and the available land on the block west of the Sanitarium would cost about $44,000.

Mr. Jay estimated that the total cost of buildings and equipment would be $100,000, and therefore $200,000 would be ample to purchase the land and equip it in a very desirable manner.

The committee voted to instruct the Greater Glendale Development Association to ask the city trustees to call a bond election at once, the amount of the bonds to be voted to be $200,000.

The meeting was full of interest and a complete account of the committee report will be published in Wednesday's account of the Greater Glendale Development Association's meeting. The meeting was presided over by Prof. R. D. White, with Clarence Jay serving as secretary.

DR. ROCHESTER A CAPTAIN

Dr. Rochester, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Rochester, of 108 East Elk avenue, this city, has just received his commission as Captain. He was in service abroad for many months and the promotion came after he left France. He has decided to locate in Hollywood where he will practice his specialty of ear, nose and throat, and where he will be joined by his parents who will move to Hollywood in about two weeks. The Rochester family was entertained Sunday evening by Mrs. Harry Beckjord of 222 South Glendale avenue, who resided in the Philippines for a number of years and there met Captain Rochester. They became well acquainted and are glad to renew the acquaintance in California.

TWELVE INITIATES

NEW MEMBERS ARE FORMALLY RECEIVED INTO FELLOWSHIP IN LODGE 1289, B. P. O. E.

The regular meeting of Elks which took place Tuesday evening varied from the ordinary in the initiation of twelve candidates for membership. About one hundred and fifty were present to participate in the exercises and to welcome the new members to fellowship. Following is a list of the initiates: George C. Ruby who resides north of Burbank, Cecil Bardwell of Universal City, Harry M. Phinney of Eagle Rock, and the following who live in or near Glendale: Harry T. Moore, J. A. Endicott, Charles L. Ammon, Harry H. Hunt, G. P. Allevett, Cecil Richmond, S. Y. Gillan, William T. Bode, Rene E. Olin.

A report of the Salvation Army Drive was made by Chairman Ezra Parker and Secretary Roy Kent, and announcement was made that new officers will be installed at the next meeting of the lodge, Tuesday, April 8th.

WEATHER FORECAST: Fair tonight and Wednesday except cloudy or foggy near the coast Wednesday morning.

PATRIOTISM AT HOME

DWIGHT W. STEPHENSON MAKES PLEA FOR RETURN OF JOB TO THE SOLDIER

A. T. Cowan, Publisher Glendale Evening News, Glendale, Cal.

Dear Sir: Two years ago, when our country entered the world war, there was much talk and many promises made by employers to young men in their employ to the effect that if they entered the service they need not worry about being out of work when they came back, if they did come back, for their positions would be waiting for them. This spirit on the part of employers was indeed praiseworthy and enabled many a young man to offer himself to his country who otherwise would have been unable so to do. The youth of the country, relying on these promises, flocked to the support of our country by the thousands, glad and willing to be able to go through hardships and face the flaming mouths of cannon, feeling that if they were fortunate enough to return they would be able to take up the old life as it existed before they went away.

Divine Providence has indeed been kind in decreeing that so many of the boys returned to home and loved ones, but, unfortunately, in too many instances, not to jobs. Are the employers of the country less patriots now that the crisis is over? Are they going to sacrifice duty and honor at the altar of greed? Perhaps in a majority of cases these questions can be answered in the negative, for a great number of the young men find, like myself, that their employer's word is as good today as it was two years ago. Prior to the war I was associated in the practice of law with our esteemed fellow-townsmen, Mattison B. Jones. Like all red-blooded young men, I was very, very anxious to fight for liberty and right, (Continued on Page 4)

RAISE IN TELEGRAPH RATES

We are advised by Mr. Downing, local manager of the Western Union, that, effective April 1, the rates on all telegrams, night messages, day letters and night letters have been advanced 20 per cent, and the war tax has been raised to 10 cents on all messages where the rate is over 50 cents. On messages where the rate is 50 cents or less, the tax remains the same, 5 cents.

ALTON M. BROOKS IN MILAN

Mrs. Alton M. Brooks of North Jackson street reports that her husband who was in Genoa for some time recuperating from a severe injury to his wrist received in an auto accident, is now in Milan carrying on the educational work assigned him in teaching English. He had not expected to return before July, but now writes it is possible he may arrive sooner. About 34 Y. M. C. A. workers are being sent in March with 3,000 soldiers.

DOG POISONER

AGNES M. HARRISON EXPRESSES INDIGNATION AND THREATENS VENGEANCE

Glendale, Cal.,

March 31, 1919.

Editor Glendale Evening News:

Dear Sir:—I have been greatly incensed lately on finding poisoned bread and meat on my lawn, evidently put there for the purpose of killing my little pet Chihuahua dog. Every day we read of valuable dogs poisoned in and around Glendale.

I wish all lovers of animals would form a society and contribute to a fund for the purpose of running down and prosecuting these malefactors who willfully kill people's pets.

There's danger of little children eating and dying from poison put out for dogs. I know of a case where three little girls in one family died from eating some poisoned food that was intended for the family dog and placed there by some evil person.

I hope this letter reaches the eye of the peanut brained dog poisoner of Glendale. I doubt if such a person is progressive enough to read a newspaper. I want this letter to be a fair warning to this miserable creature. I am constantly on the lookout, and my gun is within reach. I aim straight and hit the mark. And there's an undertaking establishment three blocks away. I pity his condition in the next world. There's no place in Heaven for a dog poisoner. The devil would be afraid and ashamed to own a dog poisoner for his friend. There must be a special place created for dog poisoners.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS PLAN PROGRESSING

More and more is it in evidence as the days pass that the revolt of thirty-nine Senators against ratifying the League of Nations covenant by the Senate of the Sixty-fifth Congress was a very wise action. Almost without exception, every thinking citizen favors a League of Nations, but today hardly any of those who insisted on immediate ratification favor the constitution as it was then drafted. All can see what chaos would have resulted had the President's demand for Senate approval, without investigation to determine the possible effect on our country's internal affairs, been complied with. Mr. Taft, one of the warmest supporters of the President's plan, has since declared that many revisions are necessary and the latter has already suggested some of them. The position of Senators Lodge and Knox is now warmly supported by Elihu Root, one of the most conservative of statesmen. While straw votes taken in various states find very few who absolutely oppose all idea of a League of Nations, yet there are a few, but their number is too inconsiderable to be noticed. Some rabid partisans still clamor for the ratification of the original draft, in the face of Taft's and the President's declarations that changes are necessary, but these, too, are not to be taken seriously.

Mr. Root thinks the President made a serious mistake in not calling Congress into special session on March 5th, for then the Senate could have been debating the League of Nations constitution, suggesting amendments and adopting them if after due discussion they were deemed suitable.

had made during the war in giving up his business interests to serve as head of the Exemption Board in Los Angeles, distributing the salary given him by the government among employees of the Board that the work might be more efficiently and speedily accomplished, and his further sacrifice in taking time from his professional practice to go abroad and investigate conditions as the representative of the Knights of Columbus. Great applause from the audience testified to its appreciation of Mr. White's tribute, and in responding Mr. Scott voiced his embarrassment in standing up before an audience after such an eulogy, but added that he welcomed an opportunity "to speak on behalf of Father O'Neill who is building up a Catholic Church in this growing community because I recognize the value to this city of a Catholic Church where tolerance for other people's opinions will be respected; for we cannot all think alike."

He then referred to his own early training as the son of a Presbyterian minister and spoke of the great work which had been done among the soldiers over there in breaking down religious prejudices and class distinctions. "If we are to have peace on earth," said he, "we must have good will toward all men. The Catholic Church is not very strong in Glendale, but I trust the men and women in the church are a credit to your community and are leading good moral lives, that the men are satisfied with one wife and linked to her forever, and that the Catholic women—God bless them and pity us men!—have a respectable position in the community." (Laughter and applause.)

He then described the cross-examination he heard a raw Knights of Columbus worker who had just arrived, undergo at the hands of a private who asked if he had come to help or to "improve" the soldiers, that if the latter he could go home, that they didn't need improving and they didn't need religion, they were living it with every self-sacrificing breath they drew. Then he came into contact with those soldiers from the front when they were brought in by the thousands to the Paris hospitals, horribly wounded, after the Battle of Chateau Thierry and realized what that private meant.

His most eloquent tribute was paid to the work of the Salvation Army. "We Knights of Columbus," said he, "took our cue from them. The last order given at the Paris headquarters before I left was, if the Salvation Army workers want passes or anything else, give them everything they want."

He gave a vivid description of the line of battle at Chateau Thierry. There the American boys who had never been in battle before or under fire, not only held the line against the splendidly trained Prussian Guards who had been driving the French before them, but crumpled up that Guard, though 80 per cent. went down as dead or wounded. He described his visit to the hospital when they came in and of his organization of a corps of Knights of Columbus men to help, how because the hospital was so fearfully crowded, men who had been wounded three days before and received no surgical attention, had to be brought in and laid as close as they could be placed in the corridors, but never a murmur or complaint from one, how the surgeons, fourteen of them, worked with the sweat pouring off their faces as rapidly as they could operate, with Red Cross nurses standing by to assist, how it went on all night long, and how he learned from those dying men what heroism and what patriotism meant. Said he: "I was a very small man before I went to France, but I was a much smaller man when I saw the size of the men who had been doing things over there, their bigness of soul."

"The boys will come back to Glendale different men. They are going to look you over, Daddy, and if there is anything small or narrow about you, you are going to get it right from the shoulder."

"One of the things they are going to bring to us is the call of gratitude on our part for the things they have done. The days of reconstruction and of re-employment are at hand. No boy who left a position in good faith whether he went across the sea or only to a camp in this country, if he fulfilled the duties of that position, should come back without being again placed in his old position if he wants it. In Australia they have a law on their statute books imposing a fine of $2500 on any employer who will not take an employe back if he did his duty in that employment."

"You cannot do too much for these men. There are reasons why they should feel embittered and feel sore. When a man gives up a good position to serve his country at $30 a month and has to wait four or five months for his pay, it is a shame and somebody ought to be court-martialed, but when those boys are out of the military game and get into the civilian game, it is no longer somebody in the war department, but it is you and I who are responsible for their welfare."

"I am not suggesting Bolshevism in this country. This flag ought to teach everybody that it is the best, surest horizon for a liberty-loving people in the whole world. As for me, I am an American first, last and all the time and after that I will do all I can for some other part of the

MORE CLOTHING NEEDED

COMMITTEE IN CHARGE OF THE DRIVE HAVE ABOUT HALF ENOUGH

To the great disappointment of workers in the clothing drive when the garments collected have been weighed up they have proved to be less than anticipated and instead of a ton of clothing the committee has only about 1500 pounds against 3000 lbs. required by the quota assigned Glendale. They are therefore sending out an urgent call and indicate that they want the following articles:

Bed ticks, sheets, pillow cases, blankets, comforts, mufflers, sweaters and all knitted garments as well as shoes, stockings, men's, women, and children's underwear and outer garments.

Also, in order to save time of workers at the salvage depot, all persons who have clothing to donate are requested to bring or send it if possible.

Men or women who will aid in making a canvass or in packing, are greatly needed also and any one willing to help with this work is asked to report at the warehouse back of the P. E. station.

One very gratifying feature of the situation is that the clothing which has come in is clean, of an excellent character, and is whole and in good order.

LAVINIA L. CUSHING

Mrs. Lavinia Larnard Cushing passed quietly away at her home, 1035 Mariposa Street, on Sunday morning, at the age of 82 years and five months.

Mrs. Cushing was the widow of Dr. George H. Cushing, one of the pioneer dentists of Chicago, Ill., and the daughter of Major Charles H. Larnard, who lost his life while in the Indian service on Puget Sound, Washington, in 1854.

While she had been very feeble for many years, she retained her mental faculties and was able to enjoy life to the very end. She was a great reader and kept up with the world's progress to the last.

Having lived in the Tropico section for nearly nineteen years, she was well known to many, especially the older residents.

She was a pure optimist who always saw the silver lining and was ever cheerful and contented.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Harriet Eckstein, and one son, Chas. H. Cushing.

The funeral, which will be private, will not take place until the arrival of Mrs. Eckstein from Seattle.

D. A. R. MEETING

Thursday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock the Richard Gridley Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be entertained by Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker at her home, 246 North Central avenue. All members and those eligible to membership are cordially invited. Prof. R. D. White, Superintendent of Schools, will make a talk on the proposed memorial park and civic center and Mrs. Gertrude Follansbee will give a reading.

world, but I am for this flag first. (Great applause). I am not suggesting Bolshevism, but I am suggesting this that we do not want any trouble among our returning soldiers. We do not want them to feel that any community would be lacking in appreciation of what they have done."

"Within a week the National Guard, known as the Seventh Regulars, are coming to Los Angeles. I want you to see that the Board of Education of this city closes the schools on that day and lets every boy and girl go to Los Angeles to see the parade of those returned soldiers. Make it your business to go. Let every storekeeper take a day off. We have a million people within striking distance of Los Angeles. It will be a pity and shame in this great country of ours if when this last and only chance we will have to show our appreciation, comes, any man, woman or child fails to be there to show appreciation."

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Button of 207 Lexington Drive entertained a few friends at dinner Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Grose and family of Blythe, Cal., are guests in the home of W. A. Mulligan and family on Oak street.

Shelby T. McCann, of 400 Oak street, who has been ill for about six weeks, is now able to be out and walk around a little.

Harry Horn and family of Long Beach were here to spend Sunday with his parents, H. J. Horn and wife, 611 S. Brand Blvd.

Miss Inez Harrison, daughter of H.
M. Harrison, who has been quite ill of influenza, is now released from quarantine and able to be out.

Miss Helen MacMullin, daughter of Mrs. H. E. MacMullin, is now employed at the Astra Studio where she is playing with Ruth Wallace.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wagon of 425 North Kenwood street are the proud parents of a nine-pound son, Jack Donald, born Saturday, March 29th.

Mesdames W. D. Blyth, F. E.
Doughty and S. A. Davis were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. A. W.
Blyth in Eliot Place last Wednesday.

Frank Mallory and family have moved from 512 North Kenwood to the two and one-half acre place they bought of J. S. Stine at 514 W.
Broadway. Mrs. Mallory is now in Santa Monica helping to nurse her mother who is very ill.

Nathan Rigdon, wife and little son drove up yesterday from San Diego to visit an old friend, L. W. Babcock, of 413 N. Jackson. They will take motor trips in various directions till Thursday, when they will return to San Diego, taking Mr. Babcock with them for a visit.

Little Edith Keltz accompanied her aunt, Miss Alta Stone, when she left Glendale last Thursday on her way home from Camp Kearny. The little girl will be the guest of her grandmother until her mother joins her later in the season and brings her home.

Pierson Hanning of Hawthorne street is quarantined on account of influenza, and has been sick since Wednesday. They thought he was over the worst of it, but he had some increase of fever Sunday. He was better Monday, however, and his friends hope the improvement will continue.

Mrs. Helen Karp of Chicago, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs.
George E. Clayton, 200 South Orange, for the past nine weeks, starts for home tomorrow. Roy M. Clayton, who has just been released from duty at San Pedro, will accompany his aunt for a few weeks' visit and then go on to New York City.

Friends of Mrs. S. L. Ward and her daughter, Mrs. Reed, who were poisoned by mushrooms, report that they were well enough to be moved from the hospital to their home in Eagle Rock yesterday, and were then told of the death of Dorothy Ward and of little Georgie Reed. The little daughter of Mrs. Reed is recovering.

Harry C. Welch, who has been discharged after serving in the army for eighteen months past, has bought the auto truck and business of the F. C. Merrick Transfer Company of Glendale, and will conduct the same in the future. In a short time he will change the name from Merrick Transfer to Harry's Truck Company, retaining however the same offices and telephone number as at present.

One of the pleasantest socials that has recently been enjoyed by members of the West Glendale Methodist Church took place last week. There was a good attendance and an excellent and varied program was furnished by local talent. The musical numbers included a vocal solo by Miss Helen Ford and her brother Henry. Mrs. Eustace B. Moore of South Maryland avenue gave two fine readings, violin numbers were played by Miss Genevieve Mulligan and there was a vocal solo by George Moore. After that games were played and refreshments served.

MUSIC HATH CHARMS

To the Editor of the Glendale News:
Dear Sir:—

People passing Fire Station No. 1 on Saturday evenings about 8 p. m. wonder where the fine part singing emanates from. Very few know what a fine lot of singers are amongst our Fire Brigade Boys; they are not to be despised, and could put to shame many trained chorus singers. They would be a fine adjunct to our Glendale Community Singers if duty did not keep them away. However, it shows our boys are happy in willing away hours that would otherwise be monotonous to them. Let the good work proceed, so say I.

NEW O. E. S. CHAPTER

INSTITUTIONAL CEREMONIALS
TUESDAY EVENING AT BUR-BANK LARGELY ATTENDED

The institution of the new chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star at Burbank, which took place Tuesday evening in Masonic Hall, that city, was a tremendous success. Several hundred persons were present including visitors from Glendale, Los Angeles, Pasadena, Redondo, Long Beach, Inglewood, Van Nuys and San Diego. The exercises were very long and included first a session of the Grand Chapter, then the institution of the new chapter, then the ritual work followed by the installation of the officers of the new chapter.
The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion and delicious refreshments were served at the close of the ceremonies.

Twenty-one representatives of Glen Eryie Chapter attended, the list including Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Campbell, Past Patron and Grand Chaplain, respectively, Past Matrons and Patrons Messrs. and Mesdames W. S.
Rattray, Harry C. Woolsey, also Mary G. Pollock, the present Matron.
R. M. Grumbling, Acting Patron, and Mrs. Sallie C. Braden, and the following Past Matrons: Mrs. Adelaide Imler, Mrs. Mary Ogden Ryan and Miss Cora Hickman. The party also included Mrs. Emma and Miss Harriet Nichols, Mrs. Orma Naudain, Mrs.
Eva Vesper, Mrs. E. L. Clark, Mrs.
Lillian Peckham, Miss Mildred Lyon,
Miss May Cornwell and Mrs. Jennie Phillips.

A HEALTH SCHOOL

A school of health, free to all, which will include lectures by experts on practical nursing, dietetics and cookery, and treatment in accidents and emergencies, will be carried on by the Glendale Seventh-Day Adventist Church in connection with the Glendale Sanitarium beginning this week. All who wish to join should communicate with Mr. C. E.
Kimlin at the sanitarium. Subjects and instructors thus far arranged for are: Anatomy, physiology and hygiene, Dr. W. J. Johnson; general diseases and treatments, Dr. Julia White; home nursing, Dr. H. F.
Rand; dietetics and cookery, Dr. L.
W. Starr, assisted by Mrs. J. R.
Leadworth and Mrs. I. A. Ford; treatment of accidents and emergencies, Dr. H. G. Westphall; healthful dress, Mrs. Jennette Smith.

Dr. A. W. Truman, of the White Memorial Hospital, Los Angeles, speaking at the Glendale Seventh-Day Adventist Church, Wilson and Glendale avenues, Saturday morning, said: "The influenza epidemic, when many died because neither physicians nor nurses could be found to give them care, demonstrates the need of just such instruction as has been planned." He called attention to the words of Matthew 24:8, that pestilences, famines, earthquakes and war are but "the beginning of sorrows." "What shall we do," he asked,
"when the next epidemic comes?"

Speaking of the rapid increase in disease during the past few years, in spite of advanced skill in medicine and surgery, Dr. Truman called attention to the infantile paralysis of 1915, when more than 20,000 cases developed, and the mortality ranged from 20 per cent. to 41 per cent.
He said further that according to the United States Bureau of Vital Statistics organic heart disease seems today to head the list as a cause of death. Furthermore, he said that while cancer was relatively rare 50 years ago, in 1914 there were 79,000 deaths from this disease in America alone. In view of these conditions he counseled that everyone learn as much as possible about the causes, prevention and treatment of disease.

RED CROSS KNITTING

The Red Cross Chapter has received one hundred pounds of nice gray yarn which is available for workers who want to knit sweaters, mufflers

A NURSE WRITES

GIVES HER EXPERIENCES AND SENDS RHYMES WRITTEN BY SOLDIER BOYS

Mrs. J. F. Daugherty of 700 East Harvard recently received a letter from her sister, Miss Grace Phelps, who went from Portland, Oregon, nearly two years ago as a nurse. The Evening News has published very few letters from nurses at the front, so this one will be especially interesting.
She sent with her letter two poems that appear below, the first written by an American boy lying wounded in the hospital, the second by an English "Tommie."

Jan. 8, 1918.

Dear Ones All:

Here we are well into another month—some of our birthdays have passed and several more to come this month. Did I say in my last letter how much I enjoyed the Xmas package? It sure was fine—how did you get so many different things in one box? Am sending some tid-bits for you to read. We are getting stuff together for a history of the Unit.
Will have pictures and everything.
I have signed for six copies—so each arm of the family can have one. Some of our members have been sent on—to go home. The last order we had was that the nurses will stay for the present and that the officers and men are to return. Of course, some of the girls are disappointed as they want to get home. All of the patients are so anxious to get back to the "Good old U. S. A." I have lots of fun going over the good things they will have to eat when they get home. The food is plentiful and usually good, but one does get tired of corn willie and salmon to say nothing of bread pudding with those cute little raisins mixed in. We (the nurses) have fresh meat (so do the patients) quite often, also fresh vegetables from village market. Neufchateau has fairly good markets, but Nancy is better, but so far away.
Bazillois-sur-Meuse has cheese, nuts, a few lemons, a few potatoes, can always find grapes, apples poor.
Wish you could see the stores. They resemble the Chinese shops more than American.

Another Day, Jan. 16.

Still pegging away—know nothing definite. Our near neighbor, Johns Hopkins Unit, is packed up ready to go and another Unit has moved in to take their place, but trains are not available so they are still living in their suit cases and doing nothing.
I think that I have told you that there are seven hospitals in this center. Hopkins or Base Hospital No.
18 (they all go by numbers), has been here for eighteen months and is being sent home. The new hospital taking their place will be called Provisional Hospital No. 1. Today we were informed that 46 is to be closed —the patients are to be sent elsewhere—but we were not told what is to become of the members of the Unit. It is generally thought though that the officers and men of the Unit will go home, but no one knows what is to become of the nurses. Some of the girls want to stay. As for me I have been listed as a regular army nurse and if they want me they will keep me, I am sure. If I am not needed will be sent back. More than half of the nurses have had their vacations, going to Nice, on the Mediterranean. They are permitted to go for a little while into Italy, but the pass is guarded very closely and it is hard to get beyond a certain point.
One of the men in this Unit whose mother lives in Italy wants so much to see her but to date he has not been able to get permission to go.
Just now Paris is closed to Americans except for very exceptional business. Suppose that after the Peace Conference is over we will be allowed to go there again. There are only certain places where we can go, and of course all other places are most attractive. Nice, however, is wonderful, the girls who have been there say. All sight seems take a bee line to Monte Carlo and try to get a look in but uniforms are not allowed inside. Two of our nurses said they got to peep in at the window and saw the gambling going on. I have not had time to do much sight seeing since the armistice was signed. Orders are quite as strict as they were except we can talk now where we could not before. Today I took a long walk with Miss Baker, the Chief Nurse of B. H. 18. We went to a deserted chateau away up on a hill above the valley in which we are situated. I climbed the many stairs clear to the top and could look for miles across the country; could see the basilique at Domremy, Jeanne d'Arc's birthplace. Could see the crooked Meuse River for miles. Wish I could tell you about the chateau.

THAT'S WHEN WE'RE GOING HOME

They say the war is over and we're going to sail away.
Back to the land we love so dear, the good old U. S. A.
Now every day they tell us that we are soon to start,
That the ship is waiting at the dock ah ready to depart.
For days we've had our B. V. D.'s rolled neatly in our packs, But take a tip from one who knows, here's when you're going back.

When elephants roost in the trees and there's whiskers on the moon,
When canary birds are laying eggs the size of a balloon.

 When cooties are as big as crows and can no longer bite, When M. P.'s know that east aint west and learn to be polite.

When Adam and Eve come back to life and show us how to dress, There'll be no need of tailors, our own fig leaves we can press.

When battleships sail thru the streets and subs fly in the air, When we can ride on railroads and not pay any fare.

When Rockefeller goes dead broke buying tonic for his hair, And Hoover feeds us sugar and not so much hot air.

When the Kaiser has St. Peter's job and in heaven gives free rent,
 And we have voted Hindenburg to be our President.

When ukuleles stop their ukeing and in music there's no sharps, When the bone is gone from the trombone and there's no Irish harps.

When palm trees grow in Iceland and we use ice for coal, When trains run thru the ocean and don't leave any hole.

When the cows play tunes on all their horns and they find a horse that sings,
 When a mile is done in nothing by a snail that flies with wings.

When the old Y. M. C. A. instead of chocolate,
 Serves cognac to the boys in khaki,
 and they don't have to pay.
THAT'S WHEN WE'RE GOING HOME.

CHRIST IN FLANDERS
 "We had forgotten You, or very nearly—
 You did not seem to touch us very nearly—
 Of course we thought about You now and then;
 Especially in any time of trouble—
 We knew that You were good in time of trouble—
 But we are very ordinary men.

"And there were always other things to think of—
 There's lots of things a man has got to think of—
 His work, his home, his pleasure, and his wife;
 And so we only thought of You on Sunday—Sometimes, perhaps, not even on a Sunday—Because there's always lots to fill one's life.

"And, all the while, in street, or lane, or byway—
 In country lane, in city street, or by-way
 You walked among us, and we did not see.
 Your feet were bleeding as You walked our pavements—How did we miss Your footprints on our pavements?
 Can there be other folk as blind as we?

"Now, we remember; over here in Flanders—
 (It isn't strange to think of you in Flanders)—
 This hideous warfare seems to make things clear.
 We never thought about You much in England;
 But now that we are far away from England
 We have no doubts, we know that You are here.

"You helped us pass the jest along the trenches—
 Where, in cold blood, we waited in
 the trenches—
 You touched its ribaldry and made it fine.
 You stood beside us in our pain and weakness—
 We're glad to think You understand our weakness—
 Somehow it seems to help us not to whine.

"We think about You kneeling in the Garden—
 Ah! God! the agony of that dread
 Garden—
 We know You prayed for us upon the Cross.
 If anything could make us glad to bear it,
 'Twould be the knowledge that You willed to bear it—Pain—death—the uttermost of human loss.

"Though we forgot You, You will not forget us—
 We feel so sure that You will not forget us—
 But stay with us until this dream is past.
 And so we ask for courage, strength, and pardon—
 Especially, I think, we ask for pardon—
 And that you'll stand beside us to the last."

GIRLS LOSE JOBS

(By United Press)
 LONDON, March 10.—Seven thousand telegraph messenger girls are soon going to be out of jobs here.
 The London Telegraph management has decided to replace them with boys and men, who will be available as a result of demobilization.
 The girls, many of them 12 and 14 years old, did their work well, despite the many difficulties which the nature of the duties imposed, according to the superintendents. They had to go out both night and day in all kinds of weather and go into all kinds of neighborhoods.

"LET BENTLEY BUILD IT" FOR $3,750.00

The homes we are building in Glendale mean more to us than simply contracts. We know "Bentley-built" homes are better homes, and that every one adds to the civic attraction of our city—that each one means another happy family, and our greatest reward comes from the satisfaction of knowing we are instrumental in creating them.

The trade-mark, "Bentley-built," is satisfaction insurance to the home builder. It means accurate, complete plans, durable materials throughout, and better construction. All guaranteed by our local reputation.

 and fined, then thrown into prison to languish till the fine is paid. I have no chance of mercy through myself. But if a brother comes forward and pays my fine, then am I released from the condemnation of the law though I have done nothing to merit this. We are sinners condemned to eternal death. There is no power in us to avert this awful doom. But Christ comes forward and pays the debt in full by taking upon Himself the burden of our sin. Thus through our faith in Him we are justified.
 It is not the sin that is forgiven, but the sinner.
 "If we walk with God we will become more and more like Him. I once saw a man and wife who had lived together for 63 years and had become so like each other that they were often taken for brother and sister. So it is when the Christian walks with God as did Enoch of old.
 He becomes like Him. And 'All things work together for good to them that love the Lord.' I heard the other day of the death in Wheeling, W. Va., of a saintly woman I had known there who had lain on her back for 54 years yet she never tired of praising God for His goodness and her life was a benediction to all who met her. So it is when we are justified by our faith in God, our sins are put away from us and we become like Him."

 but it, indeed, meant a great deal to me to give up the practice that I had labored so hard to build up. However, duty called and I answered.
 When I left I was informed by Mr.
 Jones that he would care for my practice during my absence and upon my return would endeavor to turn it back to me in at least as good a condition as I left it and would be glad to resume the pleasant associations that existed prior to my departure. I was fortunate enough to return and also to find that Mr. Jones was as good as his word. My practice was kept intact and the old association resumed. I cite this personal instance because I realize so fully what it means to me and because it is a good example of a promise made and kept to a young man who served his country in his humble way to the best of his ability. As I have said before, many young men will find conditions the same as I did, but there are many who are returning to find their jobs filled by cheaper men and are being informed by their old employers that they are sorry but they cannot do anything for them.
 The press of the country is doing a noble work in bringing public opinion to bear on those employers who are patriots for revenue only and who are sacrificing their honor and word to satisfy their insatiable greed. I feel this matter keenly and until every man and woman in America have seen to it that our delivers are healed and comforted and given jobs and set back on the path of life and usefulness and prosperity, it isn't "all over" and we cannot "forget it." We have got to "carry on" and we can never forget what they did for us. Very respectfully, DWIGHT W. STEPHENSON.
